THE HOLIDAY INN ALGARVE & ARMAÇÃO DE PERA

The Algarve is traditionally associated with small fishing communities, wonderful fine sand beaches, and delicious seafood, all of which are characteristic of Armação de Pera. Furthermore, Armação's central location allows easy access to most of the Algarve's most interesting places. The Holiday Inn Algarve hotel moreover enjoys an enviable beachfront location adjacent to the resort's new esplanade, and only a short stroll from the fisherman's beach and the heart of the local community. The hotel's other outstanding features are the beautiful sea views that it offers from its restaurant and bar areas, its outdoor pool area (once again featuring full sea views), and the warmth and friendliness of its service style.

Loulé Market (half day) – An ancient hill town converted by the Moors into a significant stronghold, Loulé has been home to the region's major market for centuries and offers a picturesque window into the rural life of the Algarve. A centre for regional handicrafts and artisanship, it is also a great place to shop for characterful gifts and souvenirs.

Silves & Monchique (full day) – As Xelb, a fortified riverside port, Silves was the capital of the Moorish Algarve, and retains much pungently historic ambience to this day, with a castle, cathedral, and many narrow streets to explore. By way of complete contrast, the Monchique Mountains offer scenic splendour and a rewarding glimpse of life in the Algarve's hinterlands.

Historic Faro & Timeless Tavira (full day) – The atmospheric walled Old Town of Faro features a number of attractive historic buildings with the interiors of the cathedral and São Francisco church especially noteworthy.

The frozen-in-time fishing port of Tavira meanwhile presents a wonderful ensemble of traditional Portuguese architecture in a delightful riverside setting and offers a delightful opportunity for a serendipitous meander.
